71.	Glenavy	Rev. Edw. Cupples	-	non-resident	-	exempt by law, being surrogate of the united diocese.	-- This parish being convenient to Lisburn, where the consistorial courts are held, he discharges the parochial duties of it in person.

76.	Magheragall	Rev. Francis Patton	resident.
77.	Lambeg	Rev. James Morewood	resident.

FROM the foregoing enumeration it appears that in the dioceses of Down and Connor are 75 benefices; that in these benefices are actually resident 56 incumbents, and that there are actually non-resident 16 incumbents, the remaining three benefices being vacant; and that in all cases of non-residence, the incumbents are either resident on some other preferment, or have no glebe or glebe-house.

It also appears that, wherever the incumbent is not resident, his place is supplied by a resident curate, except in very few cases, where from difficulties hitherto insurmountable it has not been found practicable to provide a church or glebe house.

It may also be remarked, that in various cases where the incumbent is resident, there is also a resident curate

GENERAL REMARKS.

OF many of the clergy, who are here returned as not residing on their benefices, it will be seen that many are virtually resident. In all cases of real absence, their places are supplied by licensed curates. In several cases where the incumbent does not reside, the value of the parish is very small, and insufficient for the support of a clergyman.
